Dear Recipient

Notification of intention to cancel a qualification issued to you by the former registered training organisation, Arizona College (legal name Arizona College Pty Ltd), RTO 1412 (also trading as Invention Academy)

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) is the National Vocational Education and Training (VET) Regulator.

As part of its regulatory activity, ASQA investigated the operations of Arizona College (legal name Arizona College Pty Ltd) (also trading as Invention Academy) and found the organisation to be critically non-compliant with its registration obligations.

As a result of this finding, ASQA has cancelled the registration of Arizona College. The effective date of Arizona College's cancellation as a registered training organisation (RTO) was 14 June 2025. That cancellation means that Arizona College is no longer an RTO and not permitted to provide nationally recognised vocational education and training, and assessment.

During the relevant period 24 January 2024 to 14 June 2025, Arizona College issued you one or more qualification(s) from its scope of registration.

Arizona College records indicate you were issued qualification(s) and/or statement(s) of attainment during the relevant period (see Annexure A for Qualifications).

A formal notice

This letter is formal written notice to you that ASQA

- (i) intends to cancel, under section 56(1)(a) of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (the NVR Act) the above qualification(s) and/or statement(s) of attainment issued to you by Arizona College for the reasons detailed below, and
- (ii) is providing you with an opportunity to respond before a final decision is made.

ASQA examined evidence provided by Arizona College during the compliance investigation and found that throughout the period 24 January 2024 to 14 June 2025, during which you undertook your assessment and/or training, Arizona College did not:

- a) have an assessment system that ensured assessment including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) met the training package requirements, principles of assessment, or the rules of evidence
- b) conduct adequate assessment against all training package requirements prior to issuing qualifications
- c) have access to all the required resources to undertake RPL assessment.

Based on these findings, ASQA is satisfied on reasonable grounds that Arizona College did not provide or arrange for another person to provide, all or part of the assessment necessary for you to achieve the learning outcomes or competencies required for the qualification(s) to be issued to you by Arizona College.

ASQA is notifying you that it intends to cancel your qualification(s).

What you need to do next

ASQA invites you to provide a written response to this notice. Your response should include reference to and copies of any supporting documentation and relevant information that demonstrates Arizona College provided you with the assessment necessary for the qualification(s) to be issued to you by Arizona College.

Should you choose to provide a written response, it must be received by ASQA no later than 7:00 PM (AEST) on Thursday, 10 July 2025. Please go to the response form and use your unique reference number as noted at the top of this letter, when submitting your response and any supporting documentation and relevant information. Further information about relevant evidence can be found on ASQA's website.

ASQA will consider your responses including the supporting documentation and relevant information you provide, when deciding whether or not to proceed with the cancellation of your qualification(s).

If you do not respond by the time specified above, ASQA may, without further reference or notice to you, cancel your qualification(s).

Should ASQA cancel your qualification(s), you will be advised of that decision and be required to return your certificate(s) to ASQA.
