Dear Recipient,

Notification of decision to cancel a qualification issued to you by the former registered training organisation Arizona College (Arizona College Pty Ltd) RTO 1412 (also trading as Invention Academy)

By notice dated 3 July 2025 the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) advised you of its intention, under section 56(1)(a) and (d) of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (the NVR Act), to cancel the qualification(s) issued to you by the former registered training organisation Arizona College.

That notice also invited you to provide ASQA a written response to the notice within 7 days, no later than 7:00 PM (AEST) on Thursday 10 July 2025.

Decision

I have made a decision to cancel your qualification(s), listed below. This decision is made in accordance with section 58(1) of the NVR Act.

Arizona College records indicate you were issued qualification(s) and/or statement(s) of attainment during the relevant period (see Annexure A for Qualifications).

Reason for the decision

ASQA provided you with notice on 3 July 2025 that it had cancelled the registration of Arizona College. ASQA found that Arizona College did not provide the training and/or assessment necessary to ensure you had achieved the learning outcomes or competencies required prior to issuing qualification(s) to you.

ASQA found that throughout the relevant period 24 January 2024 and 14 June 2025, during which you were enrolled, undertook assessment and/or training, or were recorded as being awarded your qualification, Arizona College did not:

- a) have an assessment system that ensured assessment including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) met the training package requirements, principles of assessment, or the rules of evidence,
- b) conduct adequate assessment against all training package requirements prior to issuing qualifications,
- c) have access to all the required resources to deliver training and assessment.

ASQA provided you with an opportunity to respond and submit supporting documentation that demonstrated you had engaged in training and/or assessment during the period 24 January 2024 and 14 June 2025.

As you did not provide a response to ASQA by 7:00 PM (AEST) on Thursday 10 July 2025, and given the findings outlined above, ASQA is satisfied that Arizona College did not provide you with the training and/or assessment necessary for you to achieve the qualification(s) issued to you. I have therefore decided to cancel the qualification(s) issued to you by Arizona College.

Who made the decision?

This decision was made by me as the National VET Regulator.

When the decision takes effect

This decision takes effect at 12.01 AM (AEST) on Tuesday 12 August 2025.

Reviewable decision

This decision is a reviewable decision under section 199 of the NVR Act.

You may apply to the Administrative Review Tribunal (the ART) (formerly the Administrative Appeals Tribunal) for a review of the decision under section 203(2) of the NVR Act.

The ART is an independent review authority that has the power to affirm, vary or set aside ASQA's decisions.

An application to the ART for a review of the decision must be submitted within 28 days from the day you receive notification of ASQA's decision and will usually require the payment of an application fee. Your application to the ART must be submitted in writing using the ART forms available from the ART Registry in your capital city, or from the ART website:

<https://www.art.gov.au/>. Review applications may also be lodged at the Administrative Review Tribunal, GPO Box 9955 in your capital city. You may contact the ART directly by telephone at 1800 228 333.

Publication of the decision

In accordance with the requirements of section 216(1)(a)(vi) of the NVR Act, ASQA will publish this decision. However, ASQA will not include your personal details in the publication.

Important legal obligations

Section 58(2) of the NVR Act requires that you must return your qualification(s) to ASQA at the address shown below:

Attention: Qualification Cancellations
Australian Skills Quality Authority
GPO Box 9928
BRISBANE QLD 4001

If you received your certificates in a digital format from Arizona College, you must return them to ASQA by email to: qualificationintegrity@asqa.gov.au.

The documents must be returned to ASQA within 7 days of the date of this notice. If you continue to use your qualification(s) ASQA may take further action and penalties may apply.

Yours sincerely,

Saxon Rice

Decision

Decision made by	the National VET Regulator
Decision	Cancel, under section 58(1) of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011, the following VET Qualifications issued to you by Arizona College, RTO 1412 (see Annexure A for Qualifications).

Reasons for decision

1. This statement sets out the reasons for the decision ASQA has made, as detailed above.

Consideration

2. Following a compliance investigation of Arizona College operations, ASQA found that, during the relevant period, Arizona College did not:
 - a) have an assessment system that ensured assessment including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) met the training package requirements, principles of assessment, or the rules of evidence,
 - b) conduct adequate assessment against all training package requirements prior to issuing qualifications,
 - c) have access to all the required resources to deliver training and assessment.

3. ASQA provided you with an opportunity to respond, in order to consider supporting documentation and relevant information you have that would indicate you have received training or assessment necessary to achieve the learning outcomes or competencies reflected in the qualification(s) issued to you by Arizona College.
4. You did not provide a response to ASQA within the specified timeframe, and given the findings outlined above, ASQA is satisfied that Arizona College did not provide you with the training and/or assessment necessary for you to achieve the qualification(s) issued to you.
5. Additionally, there is significant risk posed to industry and the community by a person possessing VET Qualifications for which they have not been assessed as having achieved the required learning outcomes and competencies.
