Australian Skills Quality Authority

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA)

- established on 1 July 2011 by the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011
- ASQA regulates training courses and providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met
- ASQA is also the regulatory authority for many of Australia's providers of English Language Intensive Courses for Overseas Students (ELICOS)
- ASQA regulates approx 4000 of the over 4800 training providers across Australia, including 617 in Victoria

ASQA

Our mission

Effective regulation by ASQA contributes to students, employers, industry, government and the community having full confidence in the quality of training and assessment delivered by Australia's vocational education and training and English language providers.

Assessment issues in VET

(NCFER 2013 Halliday Wynes & Misko)

- trainers and assessors lack the skills and expertise to conduct valid assessments
- RTOs not providing repeated practice needed to demonstrate competence
- lack of work placements
- inadequate rigour in assessment process
- unclear role for industry/employers
- lack of systematic validation and moderation

ASQA stakeholder and provider surveys

- 4017 providers and 198 stakeholders invited to participate in July 2013
- participation not compulsory and responses confidential
- 2581 providers (64%) and 90 stakeholders (45%) completed the survey

Conclusions:

- overall ASQA is seen as an effective regulator
- the courtesy of ASQA's staff and its published information are strengths
- an area where there is room for improvement is the timeliness of ASQA's response to applications made by providers

ASQA's strategic approach to VET regulation

Strategic industry reviews

Three reviews completed July 2013

- the entry-level occupational and safety training required to work on construction sites in Australia, commonly known as the 'White Card'
- the aged community care sector
- inappropriate practices and marketing by RTOs

Future issues

- revised national standards
- government policy on reducing red tape in regulation
- three further strategic reviews for 2014
